LEECH | TISHMAN

Litigation

Leech Tishman's Litigation Practice Group represents commercial clients, businesses, and institutions in a broad range of complex commercial litigation matters.

In state and federal courts across the country, as well as arbitration forums, we have deep experience in litigating and successfully resolving commercial disputes spanning numerous industries and businesses. Our expertise includes representing clients in disputes arising out of the sale and purchase of businesses, partnership and shareholder agreements, distribution and licensing agreements, commercial leases, construction contracts, executive compensation as well as the numerous kinds of disputes which develop out of financial relationships, whether financing, lending, or borrowing. Because we are business-focused lawyers, we bring a solid understanding of your company, which allows our lawyers to provide more effective counsel.

Leech Tishman trial lawyers are focused and trained to respond to the inquiries of judges with accuracy, clarity and brevity. Our litigation team has experience in handling a variety of complex commercial litigation matters locally, nationally and internationally for companies ranging from emerging enterprises to multi-national corporations in a wide range of industry sectors.

Our Litigation Group is comprised of lawyers with years of experience trying cases in the courtroom and before administrative bodies and arbitration panels. Our trusted business litigation attorneys are recognized in Best Lawyers and are members of the Academy of Trial Lawyers and the Litigation Counsel of America. Our lawyers are quoted in national broadcasts and publications.

Our business litigation attorneys also have a wealth of appellate experience. They have argued before the Supreme Court of the United States, as well as numerous state and federal appellate courts. Members of our Litigation team have held clerkships in courts across the United States, including the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, U.S. District Courts, U.S. Courts of Appeal, and U.S. Bankruptcy Courts.
