

LaunchPad Startup Services

Leech Tishman LaunchPad supports entrepreneurs to help transform their vision into a reality. We provide the legal services necessary for creating an infrastructure that assists startups in successfully launching from ideas to profitable enterprises.

What You Need

As you start to lay the groundwork to grow, you and your colleagues may be asking yourselves the following questions:

- How do you protect the company you are developing and define the legal and economic relationship between the founders of your business?
- What's the best way to be prepared to launch your business today, and be equipped with information on what lies ahead?
- What are the important considerations as you think about long-term profitability, growth, and succession?

This is where the LaunchPad Group comes in. By working with legal professionals, you can focus on what you do best. It's essential to know how much the groundwork is going to cost you and what you are getting in return.

What We Provide

The Leech Tishman LaunchPad Group is dedicated to providing legal services to startups in a way that accommodates their unique needs and timeframes. We offer a "Launch Package" that includes the legal services that startups need to build an infrastructure that is customized to their goals. In particular, we provide:

- Easy access to an experienced legal professional who will evaluate your unique needs and goals to develop a personalized plan for your company
- Flexible, responsive service
- Affordable plans with transparent pricing
- A curated menu of legal products
- A proactive approach to long-term planning
- A full-service law firm capable of supporting the company's needs through its lifespan

Why Us?

An investment in legal services is an investment in the viability and long-term growth-potential of your company. Our experienced group of attorneys can help you to make strategic choices that will protect your company and position it to grow. Leech Tishman is a full-service law firm with experience in corporate law, intellectual property, employment & labor, immigration, real estate, litigation, taxation and estates & trusts. The depth of experience at Leech Tishman LaunchPad makes us effective planning partners with startups and entrepreneurs. Our group is able to approach complex matters with the insight, common sense and experience necessary to anticipate, identify and resolve legal issues, manage risk, and provide guidance to our clients at any stage in their startup venture. We look forward to building a relationship with you.

LaunchPad Legal Services Package

The LaunchPad Package is a specialized selection of legal services for startup companies and entrepreneurs. It provides predictable, transparent pricing, and a la carte flat fee prices on a variety of legal services that may be necessary as your company grows.

You can rely on the expertise of the Leech Tishman LaunchPad Group to assist in the launch of your company.

Legal Consultation

- Face-to-face consultation with members of the Leech Tishman
- LaunchPad legal Group to clarify your goals and business needs

Entity Evaluation and Selection

- Assessment and determination of the entity form best suited for your business

Contract Management

- Customized drafting of the key governance documents that will address control, management, and overall operations of your business
- Key agreements to protect your confidential information while marketing and developing your business

Financing Alternatives

- Discuss financing alternatives for business operations
- Review capital raising opportunities for your business

Intellectual Property Planning

- Detailed review of patentable subject matter
- Identify viability of trademarks and registration
- Establish ownership protocol for intellectual property assets