

Start-Up Services

Leech Tishman supports entrepreneurs to help transform their vision into a reality. We provide the legal services necessary for creating an infrastructure that assists start-ups in successfully launching from ideas to profitable enterprises.

What You Need

As you lay the groundwork to transform your start-up vision into a reality, it is vital to have skilled legal counsel by your side. Some key considerations for long-term business and legal planning include:

- Protecting the company you are developing and defining the legal and economic relationship between the founders of your business
- Preparing to launch your business today, while equipping yourself with the knowledge of what to expect ahead of you
- Assessing issues such as long-term profitability, growth and succession

Leech Tishman provides specialized, professional, and collaborative legal services to start-ups in a value-conscious manner.

What We Provide

Leech Tishman's lawyer team is dedicated to providing legal services to start-ups in a way that accommodates their unique needs and timeframes. Our Start-Up Services team offers a "Launch Package" that includes the legal services that start-ups need to build an infrastructure that is customized to their goals. In particular, we provide:

- Easy access to an experienced legal professional who will evaluate your unique needs and goals to develop a personalized plan for your company
- Flexible, responsive service
- Affordable plans with transparent pricing
- A curated menu of legal products
- A proactive approach to long-term planning
- A full-service law firm capable of supporting the company's needs through its lifespan

Why Us?

An investment in legal services is an investment in the viability and long-term growth-potential of your company.

Our experienced team of attorneys can help you to make strategic choices that will protect your company and position it to grow. Leech Tishman is a full-service law firm with experience in corporate law, intellectual property, employment & labor, immigration, insurance, real estate, litigation, taxation and estates & trusts. The depth of experience at Leech Tishman makes us effective planning partners with start-ups and entrepreneurs. Our team is able to approach complex matters with the insight, common sense, and experience necessary to anticipate, identify and resolve legal issues, manage risk, and provide guidance to our clients at any stage in their start-up venture. We look forward to building a relationship with you.

Launch Package

Our Launch Package is a specialized selection of legal services for start-up companies and entrepreneurs.

It provides predictable, transparent pricing, and a la carte flat fee prices on a variety of legal services that may be necessary as your company grows.

You can rely on the expertise of Leech Tishman's Start-Up Services team to assist in the launch of your company.

Legal Consultation

- Face-to-face consultation with members of the Leech Tishman
- Committed legal team to clarify your goals and business needs

Entity Evaluation and Selection

- Assessment and determination of the entity form best suited for your business

Contract Management

- Customized drafting of the key governance documents that will address control, management, and overall operations of your business
- Key agreements to protect your confidential information while marketing and developing your business

Financing Alternatives

- Discuss financing alternatives for business operations
- Review capital raising opportunities for your business

Intellectual Property Planning

- Detailed review of patentable subject matter
- Identify viability of trademarks and registration
- Establish ownership protocol for intellectual property assets