

MacArthur Financial

Robert MacArthur

RMAC@MACARTHURFINANCIAL.COM

As an executive benefits consultant and wealth manager for three decades, Bob MacArthur has an extensive background in all aspects of corporate and individual financial planning.

Bob is a sought-after speaker at national law and accounting firms on a variety of topics, including corporate executive retention, retirement / benefit plan designs and associated funding strategies.

Bob attended the University of Vermont where he earned a Bachelors degree in Business Administration. Before starting his career in finance, Bob spent four years as a US Army officer and was stationed in the former West Germany. Bob has two grown children and resides with his wife, Tracy, in Rhode Island.