A. Mitchell Greene is a Partner in Leech Tishman Robinson Brog's Business Restructuring & Insolvency, Litigation & Alternative Dispute Resolution, and Estates & Trusts Practice Groups. Mitchell is based in the firm's New York office, where he focuses his practice on bankruptcy, corporate restructuring, and commercial litigation matters.

Mitchell specializes in commercial litigation, complex bankruptcy matters, corporate mergers and agreements, large intricate probate proceedings, real estate, tax planning, tax resolutions, and trusts and estates. He has handled multifaceted mergers involving public entities and multimillion dollar litigation cases in Federal and State Courts, as well as some of the largest Offers in Compromise with the Internal Revenue Service and with the New York State Department of Taxation and Finance.

Mitchell has handled Chapter 11 reorganizations representing large Corporate Debtors, Creditor Committees, Trustees, Landlords and Secured Creditors. He has served as both a Chapter 11 and Chapter 7 Trustee in bankruptcy cases filed in the United States Bankruptcy Court, Southern District of New York. Mitchell has also litigated complicated cases and non-core proceedings and appeals in the Bankruptcy Court and other Federal Courts throughout the nation.

Mitchell counsels clients in a wide variety of matters in the areas of estate planning, estate and gift taxation, and trust and estate administration. He provides counseling of individuals on personal and business-related matters, including advice and preparation of planning documents such as wills, living trusts and durable powers of attorney, irrevocable and revocable life insurance trusts, gift programs, grantor retained annuity trusts, education trusts, family partnerships, generation-skipping transfers, testamentary charitable giving, charitable lead trusts, charitable remainder trusts and private foundations, property agreements, prenuptial and postnuptial agreements. Mitchell prepares the transfer including estate and gift and individual tax planning advice to high net worth individuals. He also advises on the structure of financial holdings, and the orderly and efficient transfer and administration of assets and personal affairs at death.
