LEECH | TISHMAN

Commercial Litigation

Leech Tishman represents commercial clients in a broad range of complex litigation matters, including disputes arising out of virtually every kind of commercial contract or license.

Our attorneys routinely advise clients regarding commercial litigation matters and prioritize analyzing the facts of the case to provide an honest assessment for the likelihood of success. Our team of trained litigators handle all phases of the case, from inception through verdict and appeal, including negotiating complex settlements, and developing and implementing a strong litigation strategy, in many cases obtaining a favorable verdict.

With attorneys across the country, Leech Tishman is able to assemble a diverse litigation team capable of handling large, complex cases with efficiency. Clear, effective communication with our clients regarding their legal objectives is a top priority. Our team works diligently to develop a litigation strategy that will quickly and cost-effectively secure a favorable resolution for our clients.

Services

- Analyze facts of the case and provide client with honest feedback for resolution
- Identify and hire expert witnesses, as well as investigate and prepare for opposing witnesses' testimony
- Review opposing counsel's discovery in preparation for trial, identifying key evidence that would enforce client's legal position
- Advocate for client through all stages of the legal process, including settlement negotiations and alternative dispute resolution