

Bruce J. McNeil

Bruce regularly serves as an expert witness in federal hearings and investigations concerning executive compensation and employee benefit matters.

- Testifying on behalf of a New Hampshire-based automotive group on a litigation matter involving negligence and malpractice by a large New England law firm in drafting and implementing a deferred compensation plan.
- Testifying on behalf of a New Jersey-based trucking company on a litigation matter involving breach of fiduciary duty by a Fortune 500 financial company in the investment of plan assets for a defined benefit plan.
- Testifying before the U.S. Senate Committee on Finance as an expert witness in the hearings on the Enron Corporation.
- Testifying before the U.S. Department of Labor ERISA Advisory Council on executive compensation, nonqualified deferred compensation plans, and other employee benefits matters.
- Participating in several investigations by the U.S. Government Accountability Office (GAO) on the impact of mergers and acquisitions on employee benefits, cybersecurity and employee benefit plans, reporting, and disclosure for nonqualified plans at the request of U.S. Senator Patty Murray (D-WA), U.S. Representative Robert Scott (D-VA), and other members of Congress.
- Participating in an investigation by the GAO on nonqualified deferred compensation plans at the request of U.S. Senator Bernie Sanders (D-VT).