LEECH | TISHMAN

Federal Estate, Gift, and Fiduciary Taxation and Compliance

Leech Tishman has extensive experience representing wealthy individuals and families in developing multi-generational estate plans, a process which requires a skilled attorney who is experienced in navigating today's complicated, ever-changing tax laws.

Our attorneys work alongside clients to develop an estate plan that accomplishes their financial wishes and leaves little room for ambiguity or uncertainty. Our priority is to carefully develop testamentary arrangements that both minimize gift and estate taxes and also preserve our clients' wealth and assets for future generations.

Services

Our attorneys assist clients with complex matters, including the preparation of:

- Federal gift tax returns
- Fiduciary accounts for estates and trusts
- Fiduciary income tax returns
- Inheritance returns
- State and federal estate tax returns
