LEECH | TISHMAN

Trust & Estate Administration

Leech Tishman has a depth of experience counseling clients on trust and estate administration. Our attorneys possess a thorough understanding of the state and federal laws governing estates and trusts, having worked extensively with trustees, executors, guardians, fiduciary institutions, and charitable organizations.

Our highly skilled team assists clients in administering large, complex trusts and estates and ensuring that the testator's last wishes are honored and respected. Leech Tishman counsels clients on matters such as probate court, estate taxes, distribution to beneficiaries, accounting to beneficiaries, property transfer, modification of trusts, and settlement of claims against trustees.

Leech Tishman's litigation team is vastly experienced in probate court, having tried many cases to verdict. If a dispute should arise during the course of estate or trust administration, our team will develop a strong litigation strategy to protect our clients' interests and ensure the integrity of the decedent's wishes for their trusts and estate.

Services

- Distribution of assets to beneficiaries, including heirs and charitable organizations
- Mediation and resolution of estate and trust disputes
- Preparation of probate court pleadings
- Record keeping and document management
- Sale or transfer of property