LEECH | TISHMAN NELSONHARDIMAN

Healthcare Mergers & Acquisitions

Our attorneys have extensive experience guiding healthcare clients through complex mergers and acquisitions, providing strategic advice regarding regulatory compliance, due diligence, and transaction terms.

Leech Tishman has attracted national attention for our role in some of the largest healthcare industry mergers and acquisitions in recent history. Our attorneys frequently serve in key roles for hospital mergers and acquisitions, skilled nursing combinations, home health and hospice transactions, and complex behavioral health transactions.

Our attorneys offer clients a strategic perspectives regarding buying and selling, from negotiating letters of intent and structuring deals, to negotiating the terms of transactions, due diligence, and closings. Our lawyers are well-versed in core corporate matters, as well as the underlying regulatory issues that drive healthcare transactions of all sizes.

We leverage our lawyers' experience in hospital management, corporate financing and banking, and prior work with international law firms to guide clients through complex mergers and acquisitions, prioritizing a favorable outcome for our clients.

Our firm represents a wide range of clients, including healthcare entities, life sciences companies, telehealth companies, and international investors seeking cross-border healthcare acquisitions.